From the Pastor's Desk

The other night I suffered a disaster...my internet connection would not work. Today we are all too familiar with the with the importance of staying connected through modern means of communication. Everyday it is crucial that we stay in touch with the Risen Lord.

Now that He is in Heaven how do we remind ourselves that He is with us? Through prayer several times per day, adoration, placing a crucifix and holy picture in every room in our house and frequent confession and Holy Communion we stay connected to Jesus, the true vine.

Question and Answer Forum with Fr. John

Dear Father,

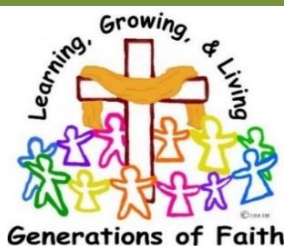

What do each of the colors of the priest's vestments mean?

Dear friend,

Thank you for your interesting question. The priest wears white right now, during the church seasons of Easter and Christmas and on saint's days to represent joy. The priest wears purple during Advent and Lent to represent prayer and penance. The priest wears red on Pentacost to represent the Holy Spirit and on feasts of the martyrs to represent that they shed their blood for us. The priest wears green during the 34 weeks of the year that we call ordinary time to represent hope.
