From the Pastor's Desk

I received the sacrament of Confirmation in 6th grade. I felt the Spirit come into my life and I tried to find ways to serve the Lord and the Church.

On the feast of Pentacost the Spirit descends on the Apostles and they become brave preachers, teachers and martyrs for their faith.

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of the faithful as we celebrate the birth of Your Church.

Teaching on the Sacraments

Fr. John will be teaching about the sacraments once per month during the Wednesday evening Mass at St. Catherine's beginning, June 6th and will explore the sacramentals once per month on Fridays, 8:30am at St. Peter's beginning, May 25th.

18th Annual Baby Bottle Benefit

Beginning Mother's Day weekend baby bottles will be available in the entrances to the churches. This supports the Pregnancy Center of the Upper Valley, a pro-life organization supported only by donations.

New Memorial Day to Honor Mary

Pope Francis has declared Monday, May 21st (the Monday following Pentacost) a new memorial for Mary, Mother of the Church.
